

Welcome to our Summer newsletter. It has been a busy term. Congratulations to our 2023 – 2025 post 16 groups in completing their QCF Supporting Teaching & Learning level 2 & level 3 courses, exciting times ahead and we wish them every success in your future careers. Llongyfarchiadau!

Over the last couple of weeks, we have been interviewing and enrolling new learners ready to join us in September 2025, sorting out uniforms, placements and ID badges ready to start their career in education and we are looking forward to them joining us.

We have been working with YEPs and other organisations to offer ongoing support and additional training for our learners and are organisation new opportunities for September 2025.

Apprenticeship News

We have had a number of learners qualify on both the City & Guilds HSC pathway and QCF SSTL training routes.

What's happening in July & August

- 1st – 31st Plastic Free July
- 1st – 31st – Good Care Month
- 4th – Independence Day (USA)
- 7th – 13th – Alcohol Awareness Week
- 15th - World Youth Skills Day
- 24th – Samaritans Awareness Day

Plastic Free July is an annual campaign encouraging people to cut down on single-use plastics throughout the month of July. The initiative began as a simple challenge and has grown into a worldwide movement, engaging over 100 million participants in 190 countries. The goal is to raise awareness of plastic pollution and empower everyone to make small, sustainable changes—such as choosing reusable bags, bottles, and containers—that add up to a significant positive impact.
